CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Celebrate a GRCC woman! Have someone you admire join the women who have been honored through Salute to Women since 1999. Recognition of the award recipients is part of Women’s History Month and is celebrated through a formal reception on March 31, 2015.

OBJECTIVES OF THE SALUTE TO WOMEN AWARD ARE TO:
• Honor GRCC women (alumna, students, employees, and former employees) who are exemplary in their roles as professionals, volunteers, or agents of change;
• Celebrate the diversity of the accomplishments of women throughout the College; and to
• Encourage young women to pursue pathways to achievement.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION*:
• Commitment to community service as evidenced by time and resources given
• Achievement within her profession or community noted by her impact, demonstrated success recognition by her peers, and the difference she makes to others
• Leadership indicated by her innovation, strength, flexibility, and risk-taking
• Empowers and inspires other women as a mentor, role model, and friend
• Has a positive impact on and is involved with students

*Not all suggested criteria are necessary, nor is this list intended to be limiting
